

Read, Travel, and Explore

Continue your research about the two countries selected by your group to analyze. You can use online resources, non-fictional books, atlas, and other materials found in the library or at your home. Use your research as a reference for you analysis.

Country #1: _____

1. What is the country's typical weather?

2. What is the country's climate?

3. Describe the country's ecosystems.

4. What is the country's official language?

5. What is the country's population? (Latest estimate)

6. What is the country's infrastructure like (buildings, roads, where they get their energy)?

7. Has the country experienced any life changing events (such as wars, extreme natural disasters, important political changes, etc.)?

Country #2: _____

1. What is the country's typical weather?

2. What is the country's climate?

3. Describe the country's ecosystems.

4. What is the country's official language?

5. What is the country's population? (Latest estimate)

6. What is the country's infrastructure like (buildings, roads, where they get their energy)?

7. Has the country experienced any life changing events (such as wars, extreme natural disasters, important political changes, etc.)?
